Can You Afford the Cost of Doing Business in Connecticut?

NFIB invites you to attend a luncheon meeting to address the issues affecting small business owners with special guest Fergus Cullen, Executive Director of the Yankee Institute for Public Policy. The Yankee Institute for Public Policy is a nonpartisan educational and research organization whose mission is to "promote economic opportunity through lower taxes and new ideas for better government in Connecticut."

Cullen will address Connecticut's budget and current fiscal mess, and what it will mean for your business.

State Director Andy Markowski will also provide an update on both state and federal legislation expected to have an impact on small business. There will also be a briefing on the latest news from Washington, DC on federal healthcare legislation.

Please fill out completely and fax back to Chris Carlozzi at (800) 664-8701 or call (877) 863-0763
